

COVID-19’S IMPACT ON IMMIGRANT POPULATION IN MINNEAPOLIS (2022)

Anandi Ganguli, Swathi Pagadala, Wanlin Hu

HOW COVID-19 AFFECTED IMMIGRANTS IN MINNEAPOLIS?

Percentage affected in Key Well-being Indicators Among Immigrants in Minneapolis

28%
JOB & INCOME

9%
HOUSING CONDITION

43%
MENTAL HEALTH

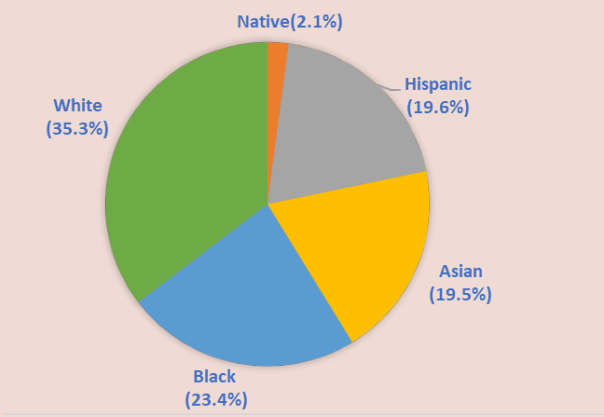

22%
FOOD ACCESS

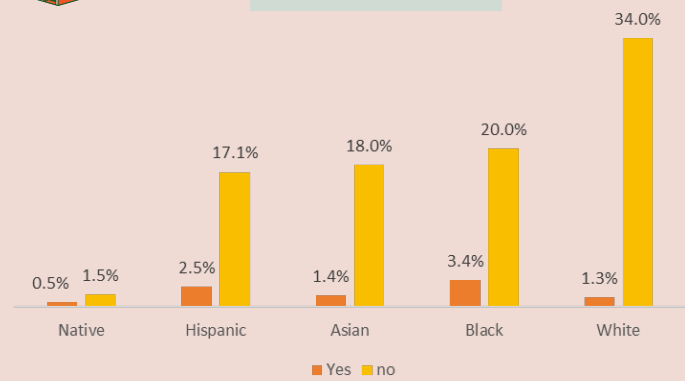

33%
PHYSICAL HEALTH

RACIAL DISTRIBUTION AMONG IMMIGRRANTS

HOUSING INSTABILITY

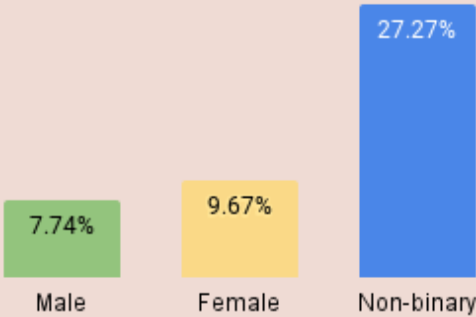

Percentage of Immigrants who reported negative impact on Housing due to Covid 19 by Race

JOB/INCOME

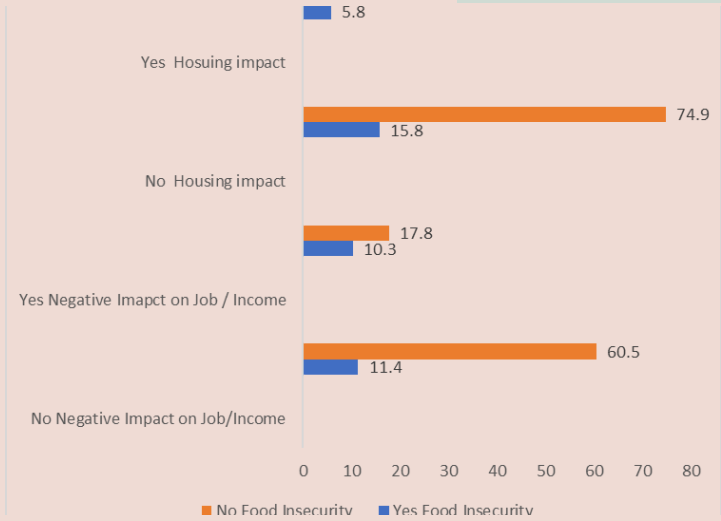

30% of foreign-born immigrants in Minneapolis faced negative impacts on Job/Income due to COVID-19

Percentage of Immigrants who reported negative impact on Housing due to Covid 19 by Gender

FOOD INSECURITY

Percentage of Immigrants who reported food insecurity due to negative impact of COVID19 on Housing and Job/Income

- Immigrants facing housing and mental health issues due to COVID-19 were nearly 6 times more likely to report food insecurity.
- Immigrants facing job or financial strain due to COVID-19 were over 2 times as likely to experience food insecurity.

PHYSICAL HEALTH

- Hispanic group reported the highest percentage for negative impacts of COVID-19 on Physical Health(41.4%)
- Asian group had the second highest percents (40.8%)
- Native population had the third highest percent (34.5%)

MENTAL HEALTH

- Native group reported the highest percentage for negative impacts of COVID-19 On Mental Health Health(69%)
- Asian group had the second highest percent (53%)
- Hispanic population had the third highest percent (49.2%)

